

CURRICULUM VITAE

Christian Lund, Professor, Head of Section

Profile I have experience in analysing local politics and the dynamics of property. In particular, I investigate how socio-legal conflicts over citizenship and land feed into state formation processes. Field experience is gained from Niger, Ghana, Burkina Faso, Mali, Senegal, Laos and Indonesia. I directed the ProCit research programme from 2012-16, and I am currently directing the ERC Advanced Grant, Rule and Rupture 2016-20.

I have supervised some 35 PhD students and Postdocs since 2000, at London School of Economics, and the universities of Uppsala, Leuven, Louvain-la-Neuve, Zürich, Roskilde and Copenhagen. I have research council experience as member and chairman of the Social Science Research Council in Denmark.

Education 1989 M.Sc. International Development Studies/Geography, Roskilde University

1996 Ph.D. International Development Studies, Roskilde University, 1996.
